BOLD HOLD UP IN DEMENTTOWN LAST EVENING

George Miller Was Beaten
And Robbed As He Entered Home

George Miller, who lives alone at Ninth street and College avenue, was brutally beaten and robbed of his money last night about 6:30 as he entered his home, his arms filled with groceries which he had purchased at a Dementtown grocery store, and a purse containing about 75 was taken. The bold holdup was reported to the police at once and the department conducted a city wide search for a man answering the description furnished by his victim, but the officers were unsuccessful in apprehending the thief.

Miller, on his way home from the grocery store where he had made several purchases, observed a strange man following him. As he entered his home, the stranger stepped up behind him and flourishing a nickel plated revolver, ordered Miller to put up his hands. Surprised and frightened, Miller complied but was struck in the face and beaten over the head by his assailant, who knocked him down and then removed the purse from his pockets.

Jumped Through Window.
After the scuffle, Miller succeeded in regaining his feet and running in to another room, kicked out a large pane of glass and jumped through the broken window, running north on College avenue toward Seventh street. His assailant followed him through the room and leaped through the window, but took a different direction, running east on Ninth street. Neighbors told the police they saw the stranger running from the scene, but they were unaware of the holdup at that time.

Miller described the man as being tall and very thin, of dark complexion, wearing a brown overcoat and dark cap and with a white handkerchief tied over his face. The revolver was described as being of .38 caliber and nickel plated. Chief Van Bibber today stated that in his opinion, the holdup was the work of some local person, who was acquainted with the fact that Miller lived alone and followed him for several blocks. There were no strangers in the grocery store when Miller made his purchases and he had not displayed his money, it was learned in the investigation conducted by the police.

IMPORTATION OF PARROTS BARRED BY PRES. HOOVER

Embargo Is Decreed Against Birds By Executive

Washington, Jan. 25—(AP)—With the importation of parrots prohibited through Presidential decree, government health officials expect to have the current outbreak of psittacosis, or parrot fever, "well in hand" within a short time.

This view was expressed by Surgeon General Hugh S. Cumming after President Hoover had issued a proclamation placing an embargo upon the birds. Previously he had told the Chief Executive that immediate action was necessary.

Mr. Hoover's proclamation was issued last yesterday and set forth that for an unlimited period, no parrot may be introduced into the United States or any of its possessions or dependencies from any foreign part.

Racine, Wisc., Jan. 25—(AP)—In these days of psittacosis, one parrot, at least, is sitting pretty.

Under the will of Margaret C. Hand, which has just been filed, $500 is set aside to provide good care of the remaining years of her pet parakeet.

Rural Carriers Are Helping Feed Birds

Every rural mail carrier in Lee county is participating in the statewide campaign to feed birds, and State Game Warden Henry Keister announced that the program has met with great success in this county. Hundreds of pounds of a specially prepared seed furnished by the Public Supply Company has been distributed to the postmasters of the county, who have cooperated to the fullest extent in the preservation of the natural bird life of this section of the state.

The feed, which is put up in two the various post offices of the pounds packages, is delivered to county by the game warden, where it is issued to the rural carriers, who are acquainted with the habits of the birds, and distributed. Not only are quail being fed but all birds are being cared for. The feed is paid for by the state department of conservation.

Only Woman To Be Senator Dead

REBECCA L. FELTON

Who served as Senator from Georgia for 22 hours in Nov. 1922 on appointment of Governor Thomas Hardwick to fill vacancy caused by death of Sen. Thomas Watson. Pneumonia caused her death at Atlanta shortly before midnight, at the age of 94.

Chaney Signed Up To Produce Talkie

Hollywood, Jan. 25—(UP)—Lon Chaney, "man of a thousand faces," is confronted with the problem of developing 1,000 voices to fit them.

The star signed a five-year contract with Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer yesterday to make talkies. He had steadily refused to appear on the audible screen because, he said, the voice could not be attained to his bizarre characterizations.

Only Charlie Chaplin remains as a major film star who has refused to make talking pictures. Chaplin believes voice would spoil his pantomime.

The Netherlands, more than half the size of England and Wales, are really French and German soil carried down by the Meuse and Rhine rivers.

JURY DISAGREES IN DAMAGE SUIT AGAINST DIXON

Reported to Have Voted 10 To 2 For the City of Dixon

After 20 hours of deliberation, the jury which heard many witnesses to the tragedy on the night of Saturday, April 12 of last year in which two men and two women were drowned when a car driven by Louis Sarver plunged over the river bank at the foot of Hennepin avenue into Rock river, was discharged this morning by Judge Harry Edwards. The jury was reported to have balloted several times and to have stood ten to two in favor of the city of Dixon. The suit, brought by relatives of Mrs. Leonora McPherson, one of the occupants of the car, was for $10,000 damages against the city and required the greater part of the week in the Circuit Court.

Judge Edwards ordered the jury to be brought into court at 9 o'clock this morning when it was learned that they had disagreed, when two members held out for the plaintiff. The jury deliberated in a deadlock until shortly after midnight, when the ten members who favored the city, asked to be taken to a hotel and their request was granted.

City Attorney E. E. Wingert, who was assisted in the defense of the suit by Attorney Clyde Smith, stated this morning that the disagreement was decidedly a victory for the city. Two other suits for similar amounts appear on the court docket for this term of court.

CHICAGO SEES WAY OUT OF ITS FINANCIAL WOES

Citizens' Pool Is Ready
When Economy Promise Is Made

Chicago, Jan. 25—(AP)—Temporary solution of Chicago's financial problem was several steps nearer today.

The outstanding development was the announcement by Silas H. Strawn, chairman of the Citizens' Relief Committee, that a $50,000,000 pool had been pledged by business, industrial and railroad interests to loan money on tax anticipation warrants.

However, the announcement was accompanied by an ultimatum that no loans would be made until the public officials agreed to co-operate in cutting all possible expenses.

In the meantime, the city's twice-voted budget of $55,314,947 became effective—Mayor William H. Thompson failing to veto it before yesterday's council session.

With the budget in effect the city's tax-levying ordinance can be made effective February 4. Then—if buyers can be found—tax anticipation warrants can be sold to pay employees who have had no salary checks this month.

Immediately after voting the budget into effect, the council adopted a resolution calling upon Gov. Louis L. Emmerson for a special session of the legislature to solve Chicago's tax plight. Gov. Emmerson, who was in Chicago, said he would not call a special session until a definite, detailed program was outlined.

Later, in an address, the Governor said the "worn-out taxing system" in Illinois was to blame for the state's financial problems.

Right Of Way For Rt. 89 Is Secured

The right of way for the closing of the gap in state highway route 89 paving is clear and no delay on this account will stand in the way of the early completion of this important road into Dixon. County Superintendent of Highways, Fred W. Leake announced from his office this morning. The releases of property necessary for the 66 foot wide roadway for the Walton spur have also been secured Superintendent Leake announced, or would be completed by late this afternoon. At any rate, no contest is in prospect and by the first of the week, all of the releases for both the highway and spur rights of way are assured the state department.

She leaves one brother, Wm. F. Hicks of this city.

FIGHT SICKNESS IN FLOOD AREAS; MANY MAROONED

Story Of Misery From Southern Indiana
Is Appalling

Indianapolis, Ind., Jan. 25—(AP)—The plight of twenty persons marooned on Cut-Off island, without food or fuel, was added to southern Indiana's story of misery today as Red Cross workers continued efforts to relieve the suffering of families isolated by the ice-choked flood waters of the lower Wabash river.

Cut-Off island, in the Wabash opposite New Hammond, Ind., was brought to the attention of relief officials late yesterday when three men arrived safely after a hazardous trip in a small boat which they paddled through open water, carried over ice and waded with, in making their way from the island. They brought with them the father of two of the men, to the rescue of whom they had gone a week ago only to be marooned themselves.

Establishment of a base at Evansville for operation of National Guard airplanes being used in the relief work was looked to today to facilitate the task of getting supplies to the little island colony and to marooned families at other points.

Fear For Griffin
Fears that Griffin, Ind., which suffered heavily in the 1925 tornado, might be facing a serious situation from the flood, were somewhat relieved yesterday with word that the Red Cross had succeeded in reaching or communicating with all but 26 of the 86 families marooned in the neighborhood, and that the town itself was suffering no severe hardships despite flood waters which covered part of it.

The health situation in Decker township, Knox county, where thirty cases of illness, mostly pneumonia and influenza, have been reported, received attention when steps were taken to establish a hospital at Orrville, perhaps in the school building.

The ice jam eleven and a half miles long near Roverton, Ind., remained a problem today, although no immediate serious results were foreseen. This gorge, and another near York, Ill., were surveyed from the air by Lieutenant M. H. Wilson of the Louisville office of the United States Engineering Corps, who reported he believed no amount of dynamite would dislodge them.

REFUGEES SICK

Memphis, Tenn., Jan. 25—(AP)—Sunshine was melting the frozen flood zones of Arkansas and Missouri today. Contact with marooned families in the Big Lake, Arkansas area has been established and about 150 persons, suffering from cold and hunger, were brought out of the stricken region yesterday by rescue crews who chopped a path for their boats through ice.

The Red Cross hoped to reach at least 200 more today. The refugees were being taken to Blytheville and housed in box cars and tents. Many of those rescued were ill. Their food and fuel had been exhausted. A baby two days old was found in one house which was in the grip of frozen waters. The mother was in a critical condition at Blytheville.

The situation throughout the St. Francis Valley remains serious, but the outlook was considered brighter than it has been since rainstorms more than two weeks ago sent all rivers to flood stages. Rivers were falling in their upper reaches today.

Vice President Is Congratulated Today

Washington, Jan. 25—(UP)—The Senate laid aside affairs of state for a few minutes today to celebrate the 70th birthday of its presiding officer and former member, Vice President Curtis.

A dozen Senators on both sides of the party aisle obtained recognition from the Vice President in order to felicitate him on his birthday and pay tribute to his service to the country.

The occasion was called to the attention of the Senate by Senator Copeland, Dem., N. Y., who wished him "All the happiness that can come in this world."

"Speaking as a physician," Copeland said, "I predict that you have many, many happy birthdays before you."

Senator Blease, Dem., S. C., expressed his personal thanks for the many courtesies he has been shown by Curtis and expressed the hope that he would become the President of the United States.

Curtis' rise from a poor boy to Vice President was pointed out by Senator Acheson, Dem., Ariz., who said he considered the office of Vice President "as one of the greatest among men."

The American Library Association has discovered that 50,000,000 Americans have no public library near them.

Study Dry Law Proposals

Knotty problems of prohibition reform may be untangled by these Senate sub-committee, appointed to speed consideration of new dry law measures. President Hoover's proposal to transfer prohibition enforcement from the Treasury to the Department of Justice is being studied by Senators Charles W. Waterman of Colorado, William H. King of Utah and Felix Hebert of Rhode Island, who are pictured, left to right, at the top. The resolution introduced by Senator Harris of Georgia, under which United States Commissioners would dispose of minor prohibition law violations, is in the hands of the judiciary sub-committee shown below, left to right: Senators Lee S. Overman of North Carolina, Frederick Steiwer of Oregon, and Hebert of Rhode Island.

Tried To Evade Help For Blind Mother; He Failed

Chicago, Jan. 25—(AP)—It was the first time in six years that Leo Edelstein had been over to see his mother.

Mrs. Ida Edelstein is blind and an invalid. Under a court order her son, manager of a chain of shoe stores, has been contributing $12 a week to her support.

After talking with her, Edelstein slipped a piece of paper in her hands and went away. When her daughter came home, Mrs. Edelstein said: "Leo was here and he gave me a check for a present."

The daughter looked. It was not a check. It was the summons to appear in court to show cause why the $12 allowance should not be reduced. It was necessary to bundle Mrs. Edelstein in blankets and carry her to court yesterday. An attorney was there to represent her. When the facts were before him, Judge L. L. Weaver of Sterling, sitting in the County Court said: "I shall not reduce the payments. I only wish there were some action before me so that I might order them increased."

ALLEGED SLAYERS OF POLICEMAN IN NEW CASTLE JAIL

Baby Son Of Woman
In Case Failed To Recognize Her

New Castle, Pa., Jan. 25—(AP)—Safely lodged in cells in the Lawrence county jail here, Mrs. Irene Schroeder, 20, and W. Glenn Dague, charged with the murder of Corporal Brady Paul of the Pennsylvania Highway Patrol, today awaited the law's next step.

The former Benwood, W. Va., waitress and the Wheeling, W. Va., insurance salesman, captured in Arizona after a flight across the continent punctuated by gun battles with authorities, arrived here last night, were hurried through milling throngs to the county jail and were denied all visitors.

District Attorney John S. Powers said the prisoners probably will be arraigned for preliminary hearing Monday.

From the window of the detention home, not 50 yards from the jail, Donnie Schroeder, Mrs. Schroeder's four-year-old son, saw the woman and Dague hurried into the jail. He failed to recognize his mother.

The boy, alleged to have witnessed the slaying of Paul and said by authorities to have told them his mother "shot two cops," is held under $20,000 bond as a material witness.

James Hoover Of Franklin Is Dead

W. Miller. The new certificates will be filled out and mailed to the teachers of the county early next week.

STUDENT BREAKS ARM

ANNOUNCES CANDIDACY
With the primaries for the election of new city officers more than a year away, reports are current that some are already planning to seek offices. Police Magistrate A. E. Simonson, who is also Township Clerk of Dixon township, has announced that his hat is in the ring as a candidate for the office of mayor of Dixon subject to the primaries to be held in March, 1931. Rumors are also current of other aspirants to the office of mayor, but these have not formally announced their candidacies.

CLEARING HIGHWAYS
The two county-owned highway construction outfits, which had been tied up at Amboy for the regular winter overhauling and repairs, have been dispatched to the east end of the county to open up county highways. One of the units is clearing badly drifted roads in the vicinity of Paw Paw and the second was sent to near Steward. The wind yesterday closed several roads, blowing the snow in deep drifts. The county road maintenance department is without snow plows and heavy graders were being pulled by the powerful tractors to open the drifted roads.

FILIPINOS ARE INDIGNANT OVER WHITES' ATTACK

Newspapers In Manila
Caution Natives
Toward Peace

Manila, Jan. 25—(UP)—Widespread indignation was felt here today as the result of California's anti-Filipino riots.

Newspapers, however, have cautioned the natives to guard against considering the attackers as representatives of all Americans.

Filipino leaders declared the riots were another argument in favor of independence.

Watsonville, Calif., Jan. 25—(UP)—More scenes of previous nights of the race riots here since Sunday were reduced today to small groups of whites and Filipinos standing on street corners.

Rumors of the arrival of more Filipino workers on nearby ranches were heard, but police said they felt they could meet any emergency that might arise.

The Filipino Club, where nine white dancing girls were employed to dance with the islanders, has been closed. All pool halls have been ordered to close at 6 P. M. each day.

Mother, Five Little Ones, Die In Flames

Atlanta, Mich., Jan. 25—(AP)—A mother and her five children were burned to death last night in a fire which destroyed their home here. The dead are Mrs. J. B. Kent, and Lucille, 7, William, 8, Thomas, 10, Agnes, 13, and Oneta, 14.

The fire is believed to have started from an overheated stove.

Illinois Peaches Ruined By Cold

Carlyle, Ill., Jan. 25—(UP)—Latest investigations indicate that the peach crop for the coming year has been ruined by the recent zero weather. H. W. Davis, secretary of the Illinois Horticultural Society, investigating orchards in this county and in Marion county, stated that the buds had been destroyed by the continued cold weather.

The University of Southern California was founded in 1880.

LARGE FOUNDRY FUEL OF FLAMES IN BITTER COLD

Every Fireman In City
Called To Battle
Conflagration

Indianapolis, Jan. 25—(UP)—Fire swept through the million dollar plant of the American Foundries Inc., plant today and raced out of control despite efforts of all the fire fighting apparatus in the city.

Firemen worked under a handicap of intense cold amid mounds of ice as the blaze destroyed the plant and leaped to nearby buildings.

After all the firemen in the city had worked two hours, the fire was brought under control shortly after 7 A. M. The damage to the plant, which covers two blocks, was estimated at $900,000.

A watchman discovered the blaze at 5:15 A. M. In the center of the main building where it was believed to have started from one of the blast furnaces.

Spread Rapidly
Within a few minutes the fire had spread in all directions and raced through the dried timbers supporting the roof. The plant soon was ablaze from end to end with firemen playing streams of water from all sides.

The intense cold froze the water and turned the ruins into cascades of ice.

Three men were in the plant when the fire started but all escaped without injury. Levi Fulton, watchman, discovered the fire as he made his rounds and turned in the alarm which brought all the fire fighting apparatus in the city to the scene.

Three hundred men were thrown out of employment by the blaze. The company manufactures motor blocks and gear, supplying the former to the Chrysler, Stutz and the Marmon motor companies.

STATE SUES TO GET TITLE FOR LINCOLN'S TOMB

Improvement Of Monument Held Up Temporarily

Springfield, Ill., Jan. 25—(UP)—In order that the way may be cleared for the state to remodel Lincoln's tomb here, suit has been instituted in a local court to clear title to the land on which the monument stands. The suit was filed yesterday by Assistant Attorney General G. E. Nelson.

Because the state lacks a title to the land, the expenditure of $183,000 which was appropriated by the last General Assembly for remodeling of the tomb, is being held up.

The suit was instituted at the request of H. H. Cleveland, Director of the State Department of Public Works and Buildings against the Lincoln Monument Association.

The land on which the tomb is located and which consists of more than six acres was given in trust by the National Lincoln Monument Association to the members of the Lincoln family.

The state legislature accepted a conveyance of the land in 1895 but no deed was delivered. The thirteen members of the original monument association are dead and there is no one to execute a deed.

Proceedings in court however, are merely a safeguard in the matter of expenditure of the money appropriated by the state. Under the law it is illegal for the state to spend money on improvement of property to which it has no title.

Admiral Byrd In No Immediate Peril

Washington, Jan. 25—(UP)—Rear Admiral Byrd and his party, reported marooned in the Antarctic, are "all right down there" according to advices received by Acting Secretary of Navy Jahncke, and the United States Navy will go to the rescue only if the situation becomes "serious."

Jahncke said he had received definite assurances that their position does not call for immediate action.

"If it begins to look like a matter of life and death, we, of course, will do all in our power to effect a rescue," he said. "But we think there is no reason for emergency action. It is just a question of how long it will take them to get back to the states."

The nearest United States naval vessel is 8,000 miles away from Byrd's Antarctic base, Jahncke said.

England's Winston Churchill is no relation to that American author, Winston Churchill, who wrote "The Crisis."

"Diagnosing" the Dry Law

A high-light of dry law discussions in Congress was this demonstration given by Representative William J. Sirovich, congressman-physician from New York, in which he "analyzed" prohibition as a "national malady." He is pictured here, center, with a group of fellow-congressmen on the capitol steps in Washington, as he showed from a table full of chemicals and charts the effect of poison liquor on the human body. In the House he introduced a bill to legalize 2.75 per cent beer, sought an investigation of dry enforcement in New York, and named four prohibition officials who, he said, had grown wealthy from graft.

Democratic Leaders Plan for 1932

The Democrats are already, laying their plans to elect a president in 1932. J. J. Shouse, right, chairman of the Democratic National Committee, is shown with former Senator Gilbert M. Hitchcock, a Democratic leader in the middle west and publisher of the Omaha World Herald, as they met at Omaha to discuss plans for the campaign.

day to misappropriation of postal timony Eggemeier mingled post offices with those of his own tigation of inspectors. He was sen-

ONLY WOMAN TO SIT IN SENATE
DEAD IN SOUTH

Mrs. Rebecca Felton,
94, Was Pneumonia
Victim Today

(Picture On Page 1)

Atlanta, Jan. 25.—(AP)—Mrs. Rebecca Latimer Felton, the only woman ever to hold a seat in the United States Senate, pioneer temperance worker and author died in a hospital shortly before midnight of bronchial pneumonia. She was 94 years old.

She contracted a cold on a trip to Atlanta last week from her Cartersville, Ga., home in the interest of the Georgia Training School for Girls, but did not submit to treatment until she had completed her mission.

The Senatorship, which she held for a period of 22 hours in November 1922 upon appointment by former Governor Thomas Hardwick, was her only public office, but in that brief time she made a dramatic speech upon the floor of the Senate which attracted national interest.
She campaigned for Governor Hardwick; Senator Tom Watson, whose death made the vacancy which she filled; and her husband, the late Dr.
W. H. Felton, who served several terms in Congress.

It is expected that she will be buried beside her husband in a Cartersville cemetery.

Policemen Battled
Over Who'd Drive

Chicago, Jan. 25.—(AP)—One police officer was shot and seriously wounded by another early today as they fought over the question of who was to drive the patrol wagon.

Policeman George Sirovacka, driver of the patrol, was taken to a hospital with bullets in his abdomen, chest and left arm. Officer George Polaski said he shot Sirovacka after Sirovacka had fired first.

Sirovacka fellow officers said, had been drinking and they suggested he relinquish the wheel. When Polaski and another policeman attempted to pull him into the rear of the wagon, in which were three prisoners, Siro-vacka resisted, and the shooting followed.

Bandits Shot Oil
Station Attendant

East St. Louis, Ill., Jan. 25.—(UP)—
Melford Kelley, 24-year-old filling station attendant, lay in a hospital today with a bullet hole through his hip and described to police how two armed men entered the station and robbed him of $75 last night.

Kelley, thinking the men were customers when they drove up to the gasoline pumps, started out the door to serve them when he met one of the bandits who, without provocation, fired point blank at him, the bullet penetrating his hip. The bandits then forced him to open the safe which they rifled of $75.

Immediately afterward he collapsed and died.

The children are twin boys, one years old, and girls of 2 and 6 respectively.

POLICEMAN TO PRISON

Superior, Wis., Jan. 25.—(UP)—

years in the Wisconsin state prison at Waupun on conviction of a second degree murder charge in the shooting of Sergeant A. H. Zimmerman his supervising officer.

Before setting the sentence Judge
Archibald McKay denied a motion for a new trial presented by Claude
Cooper, defense attorney. Meyers who was surrounded by his wife and children, broke down and wept when he heard the sentence.

ETCHING—

FAR DOWN the hill where the shadows athwart are framed by the sentinel cedars, etched by DAME MOON, are lavishly flung on the snow.

Where by the path runs a silver-laced stream to ice-spangled Falls down below.

Daintily drawn as a rope of fine pearls strung on a chain of bright silver.

Artfully shaded, each pearl a footprint, leads down to the stream's frozen brink—

Each pearl a footprint, marking the pathway where erstwhile a fawn paused to drink.

Where giant pine trees, limned on the sky, guard the beacon lights of a dweller.

Shadows on mass give a new chiaroscuro to finish the story—

Marvelous handiwork wrought by DAME MOON, sitting afar in her glory.

Far down the hillside the shadows athwart are framed by the sentinel cedars—

Wonderful patterns of trees and of lace-work etched by DAME MOON on the snow.

Where by the path runs a silver-laced stream to ice-jeweled Falls down below.

Miss Parsons Bride Of Dr. Martin In Simple Ceremony

At the time of the wedding the Telegraph had a notice of the wedding but a Los Angeles paper gave the following complete account interesting to Dixon friends:

Quietly and simply, Louella O. Parsons, motion picture editor of Universal Service, yesterday at dusk became the bride of Dr. Harry Watson Martin, distinguished Hollywood physician.

In the presence of some three-score intimate friends and relatives, the famous chronicler of Hollywood's joys and tragedies, bleak failures and dazzling successes and the noted physician spoke the lines that joined them in wedlock.

Dr. James Hamilton Lash, pastor of the Hollywood Congregational Church, performed the ceremony with a simple but moving dignity. The wedding took place at the Villa Carlotta, 5959 Franklin avenue, Hollywood.

Many Celebrities
Just as darkness was falling over the city at 5:30, Miss Parsons and Doctor Martin stepped through the lane opened for them by their friends, numbering many of the screen's greatest figures, and pledged their love.

A plain wedding band slipped on Miss Parsons' finger and the benediction of the minister concluded the ceremony, except for the joyous felicitations showered on bride and bridegroom by their friends.

William J. Connelly of Flintridge served as the best man at the ceremony and Harriet Parsons, the daughter of the bride, acted as the maid of honor. She was her mother's only attendant.

Wedding Supper
Almost immediately after the ceremony the wedding supper for closest friends and relatives was served at the Chateau Elisee.

Then came the wedding reception between 8:30 and 10:30 at the Villa Carlotta.

There, it seemed, everyone in Hollywood came to offer congratulations. There were producers and stars, directors and writers, technicians and casting men, and simply scores of men and women whom either bride or bridegroom had befriended and encouraged.

For almost three weeks, since Miss Parsons and Doctor Martin had filed their notice of intention to wed, Hollywood had waited to extend its formal felicitations. Hollywood did it last night in one of the most brilliant gatherings the film capital has witnessed in many years.

Beige Chiffon Gown.
Greeting and congratulations came simply and from glad hearts. They came in a flood to this woman to whom the secrets of filmdom are as an open book, and to the man she married.

Miss Parsons was attired in a beige chiffon gown, trimmed with lace, and a brown mullin hat of a shade slightly darker than the gown. She was shod in satin slippers with bronze buckles and wore long suede gloves.

Dr. Martin wore the conventional black, with pin-striped trousers. The daughter of the bride, Miss Harriet Parsons, was clad in a blue chiffon gown, trimmed with lace, wore a blue mullin hat and carried a great bouquet of pink Talsman roses.

Honeymoon Plans.
At the conclusion of the reception, with the last happy farewells exchanged and clouds of rice showering on them, the newlyweds departed for William Randolph Hearst's ranch at San Simeon.

The bride wore as her traveling costume a wine red silk suit and black hat and shoes. They will spend their honeymoon at San Simeon, after which they will make their home at the Villa Carlotta.

Dr. Martin comes from a distinguished family, which has numbered a physician in its ranks for the last three generations. At the present time many of the most famous figures in the film world are included in his list of patients.

Miss Parsons' column, dealing with the film personalities and their work, has won her national recognition. But with this, too, she has become the intimate friend and confidant of hundreds of Hollywood's great and near great.

Among those present at the wedding ceremony, the supper and the reception were:

Annulment For Dr. And Mrs. Geo. Kunz

New York, Jan. 25.—(AP)—Annulment of the marriage of Dr. George Frederick Kunz, vice president of Tiffany & Company, and Mrs. Opal Giberson Kunz, was revealed today.

The former Mrs. Kunz, who is 30 years old, said annulment had been arranged and procured with complete amity between herself and Dr. Kunz, who is 73 years old.

Since the annulment, which was decreed last fall, the couple have continued to reside in the doctor's home on Riverside Drive.

"There was nothing unpleasant in the proceedings either on my part or Dr. Kunz's," she said. "We are very good friends and expect to remain so for a long, long time—the rest of our lives, I hope."

The marriage of Mr. and Mrs. Kunz at Tarrytown was a social event seven years ago. She is a daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Edward F. Giberson of St. Louis and was graduated from Wellesley. Dr. Kunz is one of the world's authorities on gems.

Mrs. Kunz has been interested in aviation for the last year, obtaining a pilot's license in June, 1929.

Palm Beach Tones—Palm Beach clothes lean towards vivid yellowish reds and pure capucines for daytime. Evenings they grow pasted shaded with a new grayish blue, a mauish pink and lime green the favorites.

Black Gloves—Black suede gloves are perfect for formal afternoon wear now, especially with a brilliant red outfit or one of the very smart all-blacks, relieved only by gorgeous jewels.

Dangling Earrings—The long, swinging pendant earring is the newest for evening. A little rondell of turquoise, set in old gold, with old

THE movies indulge in many needless alarms. As an instance, they signal "Beware of Blondes" while thousands of brave men flout the warning every day.

Traffic in the movies will flow more freely when "The Narrow Street" becomes "Wide Open" as a talkie.

Hiccoughs are difficult to reproduce for the talkies and it is said to be impossible for a man to stand right up to the microphone and hiccough with a clove in his mouth.

New Handkerchiefs—One's name, in small letters, written very tiny, should be embroidered in the middle of the new linen handkerchiefs. Monograms are good too.

Gored Skirt—The black skirt of a suit with cutaway jacket has nine gored. Where the yokeline would be, fine hand tucks circle giving the semblance to a curved skirt yoke.

New Armlets—Puff sleeves on demure mesh net and chiffon frocks bring in armlets of jewels that circle the arm just above the elbow.

"Publicity Madness" is what causes newlyweds to jump from airplanes the moment they are spliced.

Had they done no other service the talkies get credit for doing away with the threadbare blurb "Come the Dawn."

For "Double Feature" Day "The Eternal Question" "Blonde or Brunette"

Fence-Rail Talkies
Farmer Silo says: "My boy in college is building a strong character. He's got so he can resist anything but temptation."

They Converse by Electricity
George Arliss will soon be heard in a Vitaphone version of his stage play, "The Green Goddess."

Walter Woolf, who was star of "Golden Dawn" on the stage, will star in Warner Bros. vocal screening of that opera.

Al Jolson has gone concert touring around the world. He left his "Manimny" behind in the form of single and talkie.

gold fringe swinging from it is one of the new designs.

New Pearls—One of the newest pearl necklaces is a single strand of large milky pearls with a large tassel of small pearl's suspended from a carved jade pendant which hangs rather high on one's neck.

Red-White-Blue—A gorgeous brocade evening slipper is ultra-modern and patriotic, its tip being scarlet, its saddle white, its shank checked blue and white. The heel is gold as is the trim.

Pique Sets—White pique makes some of the smartest lingerie collar and cuff sets. Narrow strands of pique, hand-hemmed, weave in and out to fashion a set that looks like basket-weave fabric in a large mesh.

Silk Scarf—Some of the new sweaters for winter are dainty, feminine blouses, really. One in brown, yellow and red design has a yellow scarf that fashions a collar and tie and the cuffs are turn-backs of silk.

Lengthen Skirts—If party dresses are not long enough to suit this year's styles, a six-inch hem of silk net, tulle or chiffon may prove highly satisfactory and decorative. It should match in color.

Lace Veils—Wee lace veils, in black, are quite chic for restaurant wear on some of the small, shallow off-the-face turbans for winter.

Minus Lining—New hats forego linings, as a way of making them look more svelt and tailored to the head. A two-inch banding of ribbon holds the headline in place.

New Handkerchiefs—One's name, in small letters, written very tiny, should be embroidered in the middle of the new linen handkerchiefs. Monograms are good too.

Gored Skirt—The black skirt of a suit with cutaway jacket has nine gored. Where the yokeline would be, fine hand tucks circle giving the semblance to a curved skirt yoke.

New Armlets—Puff sleeves on demure mesh net and chiffon frocks bring in armlets of jewels that circle the arm just above the elbow.

HALF A MILLION YEARS.
The 500-word history of the United States which Calvin Coolidge will write and which will be chiselled on the granite face of Mount Rushmore in the Black Hills of South Dakota will last, with any kind of luck, for 5000 centuries.
This, at any rate, is the fond hope of the Mount Rushmore National Memorial Association. Erosion of the face of the mountain is proceeding at the rate of one inch every 100,000 years. Mr. Coolidge's inscription, carved in giant letters, has a long life ahead of it.
It takes a strong faith in the permanence of human institutions to undertake a work of that kind. This history of the United States will be legible for half a million years; but will there be anyone, by the end of that time, who cares a fig about it or knows how to read it? Will it be anything more than a curiosity like the inscriptions in the forgotten temples of Central America?
Before those 5000 centuries are over a new glacial age may come crawling down from the North Pole to wipe the slate clean and give what is left of the human race a chance to start all over again. Indeed, long before that stupendous stretch of time is over mankind may have descended to the jungle, risen from it and descended to it again, half a dozen times over; and the 500 words of 20th century script on the face of Mount Rushmore may be one of the world's minor, forgotten mysteries.
One is reminded of Mark Twain's gloomy meditations. Two thousand years from now, he said, such a world-famous figure as U. S. Grant would probably get, in the encyclopedias, some such paragraph as this:
"Grant, Uriah S.: minor poet of the Aztec provinces of British North America, who flourished about 1300 A. D.—some 300 years before the Trojan war. He wrote 'Home, Sweet Home.'"
All of this, to be sure, is taking a roundabout way to say what everyone knows—that time has a way of burying everything that men made under a heap of dead years, and that the greatest treasures of this earth are sure to be corrupted if they are left around long enough.
Yet that isn't a bad idea for us to ponder over a bit, even if it is an old story. We live rather too intensely in the present. The things that we put together of steel and stone and concrete overshadow all our lives. They look more permanent than they are, and hence we think them more important than they are. It is good for us to remind ourselves that none of them will last so very long.
By the time Mr. Coolidge's 500-word history has lived its life out there may not be one person on earth who ever heard of the United States of America. If, in our centuries of national existence, we manage to bring into the world a little addition to the spirit of kindness and brotherhood, some new eagerness for grasping at the beauty beyond the stars—those things, in one way or another, will endure, coloring the life of every man on the planet. But nothing else will remain.

PROHIBITION FOR THE RICH.
Senator Cole Bleese's demand that the government find some way of making prohibition enforcement as effective for the rich man as for the poor man is worth consideration—although it will be a long time before it is ever put into effect.
It is probably true that a great part of the existing discontent with prohibition is the average citizen's feeling that the law does not exist for the rich man. If you have plenty of money you can get all you want to drink without any inconvenience, and what you get will be of very fair quality.
There is an injustice in that, a flat contradiction of our democratic tradition. Senator Bleese has made a good suggestion but don't expect that the government will do anything effective about it right away.
Congress seems considerably roiled over sugar tariff. But we'll just have to take all that sugar talk with a grain of salt.
A Detroit woman asked a divorce because her husband allowed four saxophone players to practice in the home. No wonder there was no harmony in that house.
The delegation seeking independence for the Philippines is in Washington. Well, if something has to be independent, it may as well be the Philippines.
Dr. Olga Stastny urges the ladies to put their feet upon the desks, saying it's good for the ankles. Now, if some posture could only be devised for the heads.
It isn't much fun to be sitting around with your mouth shut, but just look at all the laws you're obeying.
Some people are perfectly willing to give you credit, but in due time usually a bill collector calls.

THE TINYMITES
STORY BY MAL COCHRAN—PICTURES BY KIMICK

(READ THE STORY, THEN COLOR THE PICTURE)

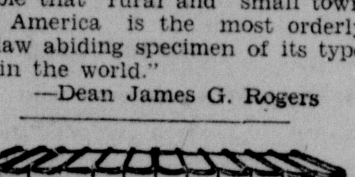

Up to the bike the Tinies ran, real thankful to the rubber man. He'd put a brand new tire on and everything was great. "Come on, let's ride. We're set to go," one Tiny shouted loudly. "Oh! I am so anxious for a trip that I can hardly wait. We'll travel on along the ground until some wondrous land is found. I hope, from now on, we may find that fate can sometimes be real kind. Naught will go wrong if we just travel at an easy gait."
Their friend then cried, "Well, Tinymites, I hope you see some dandy sights. Some day I'll meet you all again. At last I hope I will. Be careful as you ride, around and keep off the bumpy ground. Whatever you may see, I hope 'twill turn out quite a thrill."
And then, with frown upon his brow, he added, "I must leave you now. I'm glad that have met you all and things have turned out right. I'd like to go along with you, but I have work that I must do. The rubber man then bounced until he'd bounced right out of sight.
"Oh, gee. I hate to see him go. He was a real good sort to know," said Carpy, "But he's gone now, so we may as well forget. Come on, let's hop upon the bike and have the sort of trip we like. Who knows but what this may turn out the best adventure yet."
So, each one jumped into his place. They started off just like a race. All of a sudden Coppy said, "Hey! What is chasing me? I hear a buzzing sound real near. It sounds like something we should fear." "That's what it is," snapped Coppy. "It's a great big bumble bee."
A flower helps the Tinymites in the next story.)

TODAY IS THE ANNIVERSARY
On Jan. 25, 1796, Edward Jenner, an English physician, discovered vaccination, a method of producing immunity against smallpox.
Although inoculations against the disease were made before this time, it was because of Jenner's investigations and experiments that vaccination was given a significant niche in medicine.
The word vaccination is derived from "vacca," Latin for cow, for it was from a dairymaid who contracted cowpox that Jenner first extracted his vaccine. With a small dose of this poison, Jenner inoculated an eight-year-old boy in whom a typical case of cowpox, which is similar to smallpox, developed. But when the boy was subsequently inoculated with real smallpox germs, no ill effects resulted.
The theory on which Jenner made his discovery was that the mild cowpox poison set up resistance against smallpox because the body of the person inoculated manufactures a

SUPREME COURT WILL CONVENE FEBRUARY 4th
Numerous Important Cases on Docket For Decision

Springfield, Ill., Jan. 25—(UP)—A number of cases of statewide importance, most important of which is the one which contests the validity of the 1929 three-cent gas tax law, are included in the list of several hundred cases contained on the docket of the State Supreme Court, which convenes its February term here on February 4. The "test" case which was brought by the McHenry County Oil company, is expected to be heard during the term despite the fact that there was a considerable delay in the filing of briefs.
Attorneys for the firm filed the record, but failed to comply with the rule of the court and record their briefs at the same time. Attention was called to the error and the court has given ten days in which to supply the briefs.
The court will also be called upon to decide whether a beauty culturist may cut hair or whether this work must be done by a licensed barber. The case was instituted in the circuit court of Sangamon County where the law was sustained and an appeal followed.
Beauty culturists of the state object to the amendments to the barbers' act which provides that women beautifiers shall not trim the locks of customers, unless they have spent three years in practice.
Chicago Tribune's Case
The time worn case of the Chicago Tribune against Mayor William Hale Thompson of Chicago, George Harding and others, involving upwards of $2,000,000 will be argued during the term and taken under advisement.
The case consists of an appeal by Chicago's "Cowboy Mayor" from a judgment of the circuit court of Cook county in an accounting suit filed by the Tribune. It was charged that the Tribune, experts, estimating damage to property as the result of street widening projects in Chicago, charged excessive fees.
The alleged conspiracy was during Thompson's first term as mayor. Judge Hugo Friend entered the judgment against Thompson, Harding and others and they appealed. They were requested to give bond in the sum of $2,500,000.
A large number of other cases also are on the docket. The advisement list is made up of 84 cases, among which is that of the Illinois State Bar association against the Chicago Stock Yards Bank. The question involves whether a bank may engage in the practice of law. The bank was alleged to have retained attorneys for the sole purpose, it was charged, of giving legal advice to patrons.
Doody's Appeal In
Two other cases of interest concern Willie Doody, Chicago's pint sized bandit, convicted of slaying a policeman, and William Scott Stewart, famous Chicago lawyer, who seeks to reverse a Cook county criminal court's ninety day sentence for contempt.
Doody, who is alleged to have terrorized Chicago for weeks with numerous holdups, was sentenced to die in the electric chair but his case was appealed and may be passed on by this term of court.
Stewart was adjudged guilty of contempt on the ground that he conspired to prevent the testimony of a girl witness in the trial of Dr. Amante Rongetti, twice convicted, one of first degree murder and then of manslaughter. The supreme court reversed the verdict in Rongetti's case both times and it is now back in the Cook county courts awaiting a new trial, but upheld the contempt sentence against Stewart. The court has Stewart's case before it again on a rehearing petition.
Stewart, who has been quite successful in staving off death sentences for numerous clients, also is lawyer for Doody, and probably will appear before the high court to argue in his client's behalf.

He brought the wonders of the Grand Canyon before the eyes of his listeners. He dwelt for some time on the beauty and age of the trees in Sequoia park. The largest and most famous of these giant trees is "General Sherman" with a base that is thirty-six feet in diameter. The animals, he said, are very tame, deer would often eat from the hands of friendly people. He told of Hot Springs and Yosemite, especially of the latter with its beautiful scenery and its mighty guard of granite and El Capitan which towers 9600 feet above the ground. the lake is indigo blue, shading darker as the depth increases. The pupils feel very grateful to Mr. Buck for his helpful talk.

Gave Excellent Sermon

Dr. Frederick Shannon of Central Church, Chicago, was greeted Sunday evening in the Church of the Brethren by one of the largest audiences ever gathered in a church in Franklin Grove. There being present over four hundred and fifty persons. O. D. Buck, pastor of the Brethren Church, introduced E. R. Buck, chairman of the Men's Club, who in a few well chosen words introduced the speaker of the evening. Dr. Shannon charmed his audience by his clear, concise and thoroughly delightful sermon on the topic, "Watchful Watching." He did more than charm his audience—he gave them food for thought for many days to come. Remarks we have heard were almost unanimous in expressing it a masterpiece of eloquence. Several selections were sung by a male chorus of the Men's Club, which songs were well rendered and enjoyable. The presence of Dr. Shannon in our midst was made a reality through the instrumentality of the local Men's Club. The Men's Club is to be really congratulated upon having obtained such a noted and well-known speaker as Dr. Shannon, and we believe we voice the sentiment of the entire community, when it says that hopes are being entertained that the Men's Club may find it possible to go on with the good work that they have so ably begun and bring to us another noted speaker. Special attention should be made of the chairman of the club for his conducting of the meeting as well as the excellent chorus of men directed by Rev. A. J. Tavenner, also of Rev. A. E. Thomas who was largely responsible for obtaining Dr. Shannon.

Theater Party

The Seniors and Freshmen classes of the high school planned a theater party Friday night. The thermometer registered 20 degrees below zero but the Seniors were not daunted and thirteen came to the meeting place. The Freshmen, more timid had a smaller representation; only three went. Four cars took the group to Dixon. They went to the theater where they saw the picture "The Vagabond Lover." After the show the party returned to Franklin and went to the home of Miss Lucille Buck. Tables were set up and for a short time the group played Bunco. Miss Helen Hepler won a handkerchief the prize for girls. Jack Johnson had the highest score for the boys. At eleven o'clock ice cream and cake were served. When the party broke up the hands of the clock were nearing the hour of twelve and the fun seekers returned to their homes with the memories of another good time.

PREJUDICE AGAINST THE HOME CITY IS LIKE A BAD CASE OF INDIGESTION. IT DESTROYS THE KIND OF ACTION THAT BUILDS AND PRODUCES GRIT AND A DETERMINATION TO SUCCEED BUILDS BETTER CITIES.

Former Stage Girl Held As Shoplifter

St. Louis, Jan. 24.—(UP)—A pretty young woman told police today that she was formerly a dancing girl in Earl Carroll's Vanities in New York, as she and her husband lapsed in a cell here, suspected as shoplifters after city detectives found more than $500 worth of stolen merchandise in their hotel room yesterday.

The girl gave her name as Grace Wolfe, 24, and her husband said he is Robert Herman Wolfe, 27, a fur salesman; both give Chicago as their home.

The former dancer said her stage name was Rene Demarse. She told police she contracted the drug habit after reverses on the stage, but had succeeded in curing herself and came here January 3, with her husband in the hope of getting a job dancing in a local theater. She said her father is a city jobholder in Chicago and Wolfe told police his father is a fur dealer there.

THAT a city is just what its citizens make it.

If there is something wrong with its citizens, the city is wrong in every way.

Cities are judged by the public spirit of its citizens. More cities die for lack of public spirit than for any other reason.

The future holds wondrous certainties for the city that is full of public spirited citizens.

Marvelous development is ahead of the city that has a spirit of progressiveness. A spirit of progressiveness make citizens better fit to do their share of city building.

It takes no superior wisdom to know that a boosting spirit makes citizens cooperate together in a way that builds bigger, better cities.

General Motors' Lowest-Priced Eight . . . the Car with Superior Performance

Today a new eight-cylinder motor car makes its appearance. It is the newest General Motors eight and by several hundreds of dollars the lowest in price. It is the New Oakland Eight with smart new bodies by Fisher.

Superior Performance

The New Oakland Eight develops 85 horsepower and is the first stock car of its size and weight to employ an engine of such high power. Since performance depends largely on the ratio between horsepower and weight, the New Oakland Eight is exceptionally fast and powerful because it produces one horsepower to 37 pounds of car weight.

Eight-Cylinder Smoothness

The New Oakland Eight has all the smoothness which results from the overlapping power impulses inherent in eight-cylinder engine design. In addition, it enjoys exclusive mechanical advantages which make it even smoother and more delightful to drive.

Sound Basic Design

Several of the engineers who participated in creating General Motors' first eight back in 1914 were responsible for the development of the New Oakland Eight. To this latest task they brought a wide knowledge of eight-cylinder design. It is reasonable to expect that the Oakland is a finer eight because of this fact.

Moderate Price

We believe the New Oakland Eight will appeal to you all the more forcibly when you consider its very moderate price. And a demonstration will reveal how well it merits the description "the car with superior performance."

A Famous Name—A Finer Car . . . Introducing Important Improvements

The announcement of the first Pontiac in 1926 brought to the low-price field a new order of beauty, performance and reliability. And each Pontiac announcement since that time has introduced a car which represented an improvement even over its own highly regarded predecessors.

Important Improvements

Now comes the New Series Pontiac Big Six—an even finer car with a famous name. It retains all the qualities responsible for Pontiac's success in the past. And in addition it introduces many improvements.

New bodies by Fisher make this latest Pontiac Big Six more beautiful than ever.

Greater Smoothness and Safety

The smoothness of Pontiac's 60-horsepower engine is further increased by the use of improved type rubber engine mountings. Pontiac's large non-squeak four-wheel brakes have been made even more efficient. A new sloping non-glare windshield also adds to its safety. Handling ease is increased through the use of a new type of steering mechanism. Improved Lovejoy Hydraulic Shock Absorbers give increased riding comfort.

Time-Tried Performance

In speed, power and pick-up the New Series Pontiac Big Six continues to uphold the Pontiac reputation for spirited performance. Come now to our showroom and inspect this finer car with a famous name—the New Series Pontiac Big Six.

STERLING WINS
DOUBLE-HEADER
FROM DIXON BOYS

Locals were Defeated Last Night At Sterling
High School

Dixon Heavies 9; Sterling Heavies 12.
Dixon Lights 5; Sterling Lights 8.

By ROBERT LESAGE
Both Dixon high school basketball squads journeyed to Sterling last evening only to come home the losers of the twin bill. A large gathering of enthusiastic fans of whom many were Dixonites, were on hand to see the fastest and most hard fought game to be put up by the purple and white squad yet this year. Although the locals executed their plays in fine order and showed greatly improved form in following, in their shots they were unable to find the hoop for points that meant the winning of the game.

In the heavyweight contest the Sterling five opened the scoring by a free throw, but the Dixon aggregation soon obtained the lead by the sinking of a long floor shot, well past the center of the floor, by Teeter. The score at the quarter stood 2 to 1, Sterling being on the small end. Shortly after the start of the second quarter Haselberg was caused to leave the contest along the personal foul route and Sterling immediately set up an attack that netted them 8 points. This made the score at the half 4 to 9 in Sterling's favor. In the second half the Dixon cagers started off fast and brought the score up to 8 to 9, then as usual they failed to find the basket and Sterling came out the victors 12 to 9. Vorhis was high point man for Dixon, with four points, and Huber carried off the honors for his team with also four points to his credit. The teams lined up as follows:

Dixon Heavies

Lightweights Lose
The Sterling Lights clashed with the Dixon Lights in the opening performance which resulted in the locals being trimmed to the tune of 8 to 5. Both teams showed great guarding and by the end of the first quarter only one point had been scored and that on a free throw by a Sterling man. At the half the score stood 5 to 1 in favor of the same team. The game was not by any means as yet in the bag and both teams started the second half fighting teeth to teeth. The Dixon quintet were unable to age their shots while the other five did and the third quarter ended with Sterling adding another four points to their score. With two minutes of the last quarter left to play the locals uncorked an attack, with McReynolds and Flamingam on the scoring end, but it was too late and the Dixon squad lost 5 to 8. This is the first basketball game McReynolds has appeared in for the Dixon high school and by his fine playing has assured himself a position on his team, and also was high point man with 3 points. The teams lined up as follows:

REYNOLDS TEAM LOST
The Reynolds Wire Company basketball squads suffered a double defeat in their games played at the Moose hall last evening. Joyce Thomas and Dunbar, three of the stalwarts of the squad, were unable to participate in the games and this served to weaken both teams. The American Insurance Company team of Rockford swamped the wire weavers in the main game of the evening by a score of 46 to 24. In the second game, the Merchants' team of this city won from the Reynolds seconds by a score of 16 to 7.

Next Monday evening the Carlson roofers, one of the fastest teams in Rockford will meet the Reynolds in the Moose floor. A week later the Reynolds team will play a return game at Rockford, meeting in a preliminary event at Tebala Temple when the Roofers meet the Tebala team.

CAMELS ARE PESTS
Melbourne, Australia.—Back in the 1920s when Australia was just being built up, camels were introduced to aid transportation. But with the coming of automobiles, railroads and airplanes, they have been abandoned and have now increased to such an extent that they are pests. Camel culls are being organized to kill off the animals which are eating so much grass that sheep are running out.

It might be Honolulu, but it isn't. They might be Hawaiian belles, but they aren't. And the cameraman, coming upon this entrancing scene at Miami Beach, Fla., might have hurried away—but he didn't! So here you see the hula hula as it was done in a truly tropical setting—with grass skirts, leis, palm trees and everything—by a trio of fair Florida dancers. Left to right are Mac Rose Peckes, Marie Jones and Gloria Secorne.

Here you see the leader of the capital's youngest set, as, curls, story book and all, she sat for the portrait by Berta de Hellebrandt, right, noted Hungarian painter.

ITALY'S DEMAND
THREATENS NAVY
CONFERENCE NOW

Insist On A Navy Equal
To That Of Other
Continental

BY BYRON PRICE.
Associated Press Staff Writer.
London, Jan. 25.—(AP)—There were hints today from Italian sources that unless Italy's plea for naval equality with any other European continental power was granted she might prefer to take no part in decisions of the five power naval conference, which is ending its first week here.

Meanwhile exhorted by their colleagues among the sea powers to settle their differences between themselves France and Italy tried again to smooth over their political disagreement. On the outcome may depend in large measure how comprehensive a plan of naval limitation is to be written at London.

In order to carry forward the intricate negotiations in which he has found himself, Andre Tardieu, French Premier, cancelled his plans for a week-end at Paris, and he and Dino Grandi, Italian Foreign Minister and spokesman and counsellor of Mussolini, sought solution of their divergencies by direct conversations.

Conference Important.
The importance of their meeting was not minimized in any responsible quarter. All three delegations, the American, British and Japanese, in turn expressed earnest hope a way might be found to clear the conference horizon of this cloud of uncertainty.

In some quarters there were hints the situation might reach a state where one or more of the three leading naval powers would be asked to use its good offices for adjustment. The American delegation kept close touch with the disagreement, although not directly involved.

Signor Grandi yesterday explained the Italian viewpoint at length to Colonel Henry L. Stimson, Secretary of State and head of the American delegation, and during the evening Ambassador Morrow, who is considered one of the ablest negotiators on the American delegation, called on Premier Tardieu.

Opinion Optimistic.
The prevailing note in all available comment still was one of optimism that eventually some method of settlement would be found.

While the French and Italians struggled with their problem the other delegations virtually left them with the entire conference stage to themselves. Colonel Stimson was at his country place on the outskirts of London where he went late yesterday for a week-end of rest. Prime Minister MacDonald withdrew to Chequers where he had as his guests delegates of the British Dominions. Most of the Japanese delegates also were absent from their headquarters.

Urging her claim for naval equality with any other European continental power, Italy has told her colleagues in the conference that if this is granted she is ready to discuss any naval reduction, however, drastic. Italy insists this policy is not directed against any one nation, pointing out that both Russia and Germany are making naval strides of consequence.

France, however, is the only other naval power represented at the naval conference and the French objection to the Italian program, unless certain conditions are attached, thus far has been as adamant as the position taken by Italy herself.

New Oaklands and
Pontiacs Are Here

C. E. Mossholder of the Oakland-Pontiac agency was today showing the new 1930 models of both makes of cars. The Oakland V-type eight, the feature of the new line is attracting a great deal of attention. Among the new inventions responsible for the smoothness with which the Oakland Eight delivers its tremendous power, is a simple and ingenious device bearing a newly coined name—the synchronizer. It operates in conjunction with an equally new type of front engine mounting. The function of the synchronizer is to permit the normal movement of the front of the engine while preventing the motor under the impact of road shocks, from exceeding the movement. The Oakland Eight is being shown in the four-door standard sedan model, equipped with Fisher body, slanting windshield and is in both wood and wire wheels. The Pontiac is shown in the coach and custom build four-door sedan models. No new mechanical changes have been made on the Pontiac, a new style Fisher body, richly upholstered, and seven different body styles being offered. The upholstery is improved in richness and the body construction has undergone slight changes to insure the greatest comfort in riding.

OAK FOREST

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Plock and daughter Dorothy, of North Dixon, entertained at their home Thursday evening, celebrating the birthday anniversary of Flave Plock. The evening was very pleasantly spent with cards, conversation and music, everyone joining in singing the old songs and hymns to the music of the player piano. At midnight refreshments were served, coffee, sandwiches, pickles and cake. The guests were Mr. and Mrs. Flave Plock and daughter, Jean; Mrs. C. W. HERE'S HOW!—

No Movie Kiss Is This, With Which Homecoming Clara Bow Proves Her Love for Harry Richman, Fiance

Are they still in love?—are they really engaged? Well, if you doubt it, don't ask Clara Bow or Harry Richman, just watch 'em. That's what the cameraman was doing when the "IT" girl from Hollywood went home to Brooklyn, N. Y., to see the folks and her night-club-entertainer-fiance. And here you see the way they posed together at the station while flashlights boomed and hundreds of movie fans looked on with rather audible sighs.

PEOPLE'S COLUMN

FEED THE BIRDS

Editor Telegraph: I am very glad to note through occasional items in the Telegraph how many people are displaying an interest in the many beautiful birds of this locality.

For over a year I have lived on the edge of town, near woods and river, and with every opportunity to study them at close quarters. With all due appreciation of the knowledge to be gained from books and written articles, there is no way so sure to teach one correctly, or so interesting as daily observation and personal love of the birds. I am keeping a careful record of all birds seen in our own yard and trees, noting the approximate dates of their arrivals and their departures. Of forty-six varieties I have been able to distinguish in the past year, fifteen remain all the winter.

I have birds ranging in size from the tiny humming bird to the crows and in beauty from the brown wren to the gorgeous wood-peckers, cardinals, orioles, grosbeaks, thrushes, jays, warblers and many others.

This winter the only new ones were a pair of Canada jays. Last February I had a flock of nine English starling. I wonder if many Dixon people are familiar with them? When I first saw them they certainly had me puzzled. Large, awkward, high-shouldered, black birds with voices like crows, necks and shoulders and heads iridescent and speckled with poll grey. Not at all like black birds in their movements on the ground nor in flight. They rather squat on the ground and fly with much flapping of wings like a crow. I understand that they are destructive to fruit and garden crops and the only benefit derived from their visits is that they strip spoiled fruit that remains on trees in the winter.

The feeding of all these this winter is quite a problem, the amount they consume is unbelievably large. We kept out for the wood-peckers, tit-mice, chickadees, nuthatches and creepers, corn on the cob, sunflower seeds and grain, especially for the cardinals and crows for all of them and the blue-jays and sparrow will eat every bit of all we put out unless watched and scared away.

They have no manners at all—the other birds come, wait their turn, eat and go off, but the gluttonous jays and sparrows come in crowds, (gangs would be better) chase off all the others and gorge until no tiny crumb is left! The aristocrats and the hol-pollo!

Giant Italian Shows Amazing Speed in American Debut

Associated Press Sports Writer
BY ALAN J. GOULD

New York, Jan. 25.—(AP)—Whatever else may be said about the America debut of Primo Carnera, biggest of all the heavyweights, its ranks distinctly as the greatest social and artistic success of the winter, regardless of what happens beneath the palms of Miami.

Without a hitch in any feature of the arrangements, the ballyhoo or his own showmanship, the 269 pound Italian giant knocked out Big Boy Peterson in exactly one minute and ten seconds of the main act in Madison Square Garden last evening. An appreciative, capacity crowd of 18,000 roared like a lot of small boys at a circus as the big, barrel-chested Carnera handled the blonde Scandinavian as though his 269 pounds were mere featherweight.

Had Amazing Speed.
Carnera displayed amazing speed and agility for his tremendous size. He also exhibited a wide range of punches in the brief period of action but he could not fail to look impressive against an opponent who was knocked down four times for counts of three, eight, four and ten from an assortment of left hooks and right uppercuts.

At no moment of the proceedings did Peterson make any menacing gestures toward his huge, dark-haired opponent. He spent 25 of the 70 seconds that the "fight" lasted reclining on the canvas in a variety of poses.

From first to last, Carnera manifested ability as a clown and showman. He had the bellowing as he popped in, and was all smiles as he acknowledged the roars of applause. After the knockout to show he was a stronger in these fistic parts, however, he went so far as to take the liberty of hugging the veteran announcer, Joe Humphries.

To sum up the Carnera case for the moment, one of the keenest of boxing men very fast but of course, I would like to see him in there with a fighter.

Semi-Final Good Show.
As far as actual fighting was concerned, the customers got a much better run for the money in the semi-final in which Larry Johnson, crack Chicago Negro light heavyweight, scored his 15th successive knockout at the expense of Fred Lenhart, Spokane, Wash., a rough and ready customer. Johnson knocked the far westerner down four times before he put over the finishing blow after two minutes, five seconds of the seventh round of what was to have been a ten round bout.

Add Warren of Chapel Hill, N. C., gave Ora Buck Weaver, Medicine Lodge, Kas., heavyweight, a thorough trouncing in the first ten rounds.

Phil Scott, British heavyweight, who is to meet Jack Sharkey at Miami, Feb. 27, was introduced from the ring just before the big fight and got a loud chorus of boos for his pains. The customers evidently remembered Scott's last previous appearance at the Garden when he won on a much-disputed foul by Otto Von Porat.

With the Cagers

Chicago, Jan. 25.—(AP)—Leading teams in the Western Conference basketball championship campaign will rest tonight while the underdogs do something toward a temporary settlement of the last place situation.

The three teams still without a victory in conference competition—Minnesota, Ohio State and Chicago—all will be in action, with the Gophers and Buckeyes battling at Columbus, O. The other contest will be the first installment of the season of Chicago's Civil War, when Northwestern invades Patten Gymnasium to meet Chicago.

The Minnesota-Ohio State contest appeared to be a tossup, while Northwestern, although erratic, seemed too strong for Chicago's luckless five. Ohio State will face Minnesota with a revised lineup, due to injuries and illness. Minnesota will be at full strength for the test, and was hopeful of breaking to the victory column.

SPORT BRIEFS

ERRORGRAMS

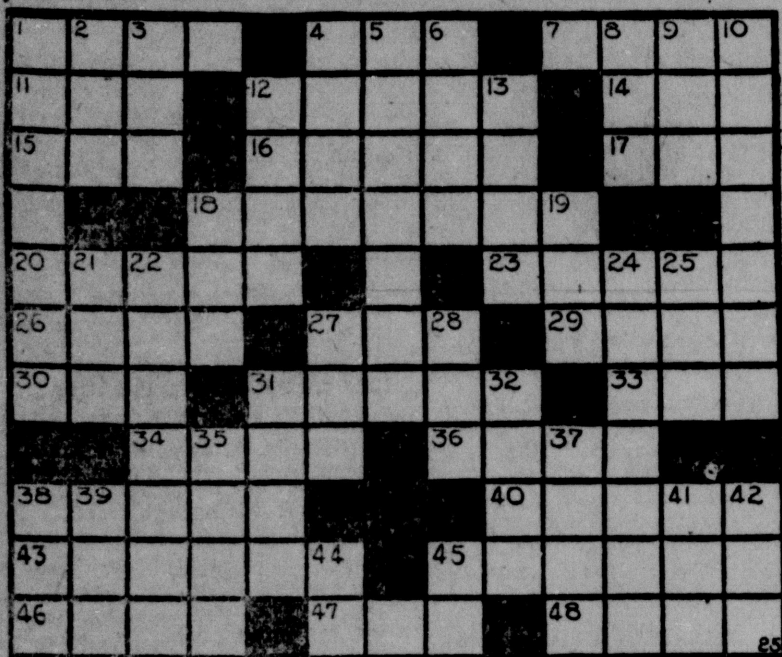

(Copyright, 1930, NEA Service, Inc.)

There are at least four mistakes in the above picture. They may pertain to grammar, history, etiquette, drawing or whatnot. See if you can find them. Then look at the scrambled word below—and unscramble it, by switching the letters around. Grade yourself 20 for each of the mistakes you find, and 20 for the word if you unscramble it. Monday we'll explain the mistakes and tell you the word. Then you can see how near a hundred you bat.

FRIDAY'S CORRECTIONS

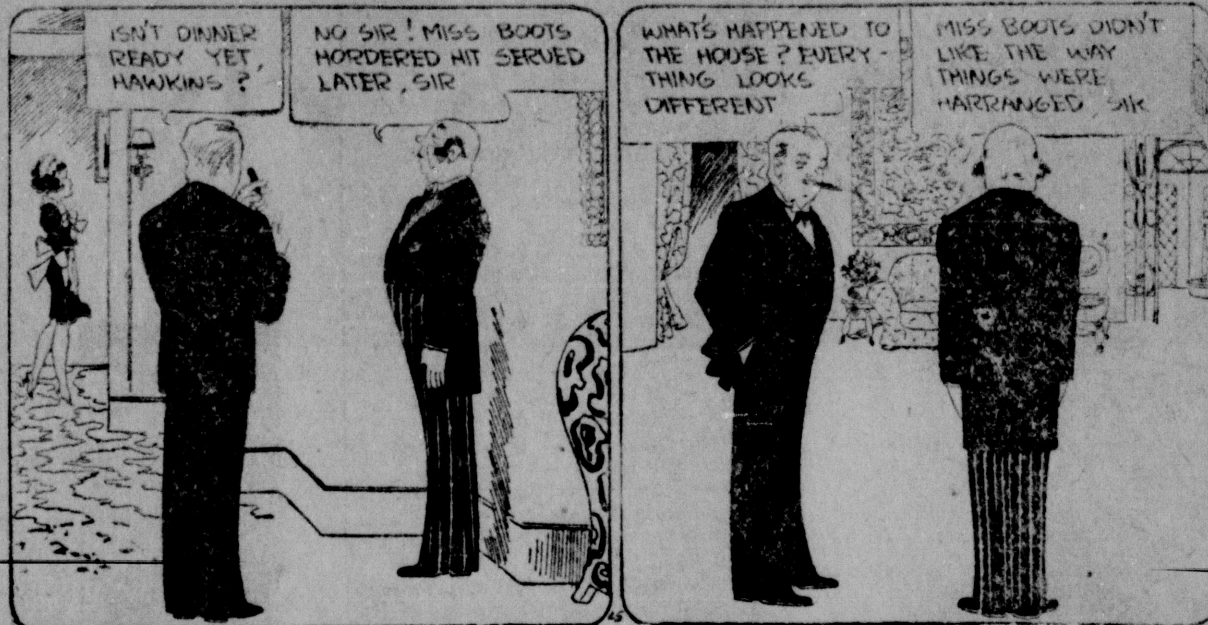

(1) The White's center should have both feet in the ring. (2) The Red's center should have but one arm in the air. (3) The center line, in the ring, should run at right angles, instead of parallel, with the sidelines. (4) A field goal counts two points and would put the Whites ahead, instead of tying the score. (5) The scrambled word is OUSTER.

BEGIN HERE TODAY

JUDITH CAMERON, triplet in a New York publishing house marries ARTHUR KNIGHT, ex-captain of the department in which she works. Knight is widower with a daughter, TONY, 18, in Paris, and a son, JUNIOR, 16, at school.

A blissful honeymoon in Bermuda is interrupted by a cablegram that Tony is on her way. American Judith and Arthur go to meet her. When the girl is borne her stepmother. Later she tells Judith she must leave it house. Knight, overhearing, forces Tony to apologize.

The girl spends much of a time with MICKEY MORRINE, a famous show-biz actress who she met in Paris. He is surprised from his wife and deep in a flirtation with Tony. As day passes state of armed neutrality exists between Tony and Judith. Judith arrives home for the holidays and treats Judith with cold aloofness. Judith is uncomfortable until the boy returns to school.

ANDY CRAIG, a young man Knight has helped through college calls on Tony. Craig is employed in the legal department of the publishing house. He has loved Tony for years—rather hopelessly. One afternoon Judith encounters Craig unexpectedly. She is annoyed at her embarrassment.

Because time hangs heavily on her hands, Arthur suggests Judith should have the house redecorated. Craig calls frequently and one evening was Tony's escort to accompany him to a dinner at Madison Square Garden. Judith goes. Tony left alone with her father, tells him it is Judith and not herself who is Craig comes to the house to see Knight denies this angrily. Tony surprises Judith by asking her to have lunch with her in town next day.

NOW GO ON WITH THE STORY CHAPTER XXI

BECAUSE Judith was eager to meet Tony's unknown friend and to look her nest at the luncheon, she took particular care in dressing.

She was humming a little snatch from a catchy waltz tune that had been on the air the evening before. It was 10:30 o'clock in the morning, early to think of dressing for luncheon, but Judith was in an anticipatory mood.

Someone gave a light tap on the door. Before Judith had time even to call out, the door opened and Tony's head emerged through a narrow slit.

"Morning, Judith," she said cheerfully. "Aren't you surprised to see me up?"

"Rather!" Judith answered good naturedly. "What is it—excitement about meeting the young man?"

"Oh, no!" Tony insisted, shaking her head in firm denial. "Much more important things on my mind this morning than men. Judith, I've an appointment at the hairdresser's at 11:30. Carl is such a particular hairdresser, too. I simply don't dare miss a date. You have to sign up for 'em days and days ahead. Will you mind if I dash on into town for my appointment and then meet you at one o'clock for lunch?"

"No," said Judith, who did mind but couldn't very easily object. "That's quite all right, Tony. Where's the place I'm to meet you?"

"At the Rookery. It's a little place on Madison that I'm crazy about. Wait—I'll find the address."

The door closed. Five minutes later it opened and Tony's head appeared once more.

"Here," she said, "I wrote it down. And of course you'll have Bert drive in. He knows where it is. Taken me there lots of times."

Tony buried a folded piece of paper across the room. It fell in Judith's lap.

"Just go in and say you want Tony Knight's table," the girl in the doorway instructed. "Mrs.

Knights loved the car and always enjoyed the ride into the city. To sit back in the big car with a liveried chauffeur in front and glide over smooth pavements was a sensation which had not yet lost its novelty.

Traffic delays which she had anticipated did not develop. It was 10 minutes of one when Bert brought the car up to the curb in front of "The Rookery."

Judith stepped out and instructed the driver to return for her at two o'clock. Judith had never been in the place but she had passed it often during her employment at Hunter Brothers. It was not more than a block and a half's walk from the publishing house. She had never ventured inside, knowing well that it was a la carte price list was not meant for her purse.

Today she opened the door and stepped in.

"THE ROOKERY" looked a good deal like a hundred other tea rooms. It appeared to be a place where food of good quality was served at high prices. The walls were creamy brown. Wooden chairs and tables stood about and in place of sunlight there were burning candles. The outstanding characteristic of the place was its air of intimacy.

There were such a number of tables for two set at angles which seemed to give them privacy.

A smiling woman in a blue frock came forward.

"Can I give you a seat?" she asked.

"Yes," answered Judith. "I came to meet Miss Antoinette Knight. I believe she reserved a table."

"Oh, yes," the hostess assured her. "Miss Knight's table is back here. Will you come this way?"

She led Judith to the rear of the room where, standing well apart from the others, was a table laid for two.

"But this can't be right," Judith protested. "There should be a third plate. Miss Knight is bringing a friend."

The woman in blue showed concern.

"How odd! Miss Knight particularly requested this table. She called me not more than an hour ago."

"Well, perhaps—perhaps I'm mistaken. It may be her friend was unable to keep the engagement."

Judith took the chair which had

"Mind if I sit down?"
"Of course not . . . only we're going to need another place here, aren't we?"

Wayne, who runs the place, knows me.

Judith nodded her head.

"I'll be there at one," she repeated.

Judith scolded her purse and jammed the scrap of paper into it. It was certainly very clumsy and pleasant to have Tony visiting back and forth across the hallway. Well, the luncheon should be a great success. Certainly no one could be in a more angelic mood than Tony seemed to be this morning.

At 15 minutes after 12 o'clock Judith Knight, feeling she was looking very well indeed, closed the door of the house behind her, came down the walk and stepped into the limousine.

She gave Bert the address Tony had written and sank back against the comfortably upholstered cushions.

Judith loved the car and always enjoyed the ride into the city. To sit back in the big car with a liveried chauffeur in front and glide over smooth pavements was a sensation which had not yet lost its novelty.

"How odd! Miss Knight particularly requested this table. She called me not more than an hour ago."

"Well, perhaps—perhaps I'm mistaken. It may be her friend was unable to keep the engagement."

Judith took the chair which had been drawn back for her. So it was to have luncheon with Tony alone after all!

There were still several moments to wait even if Tony were prompt, of which Judith was highly doubtful. She glanced about the room prepared to enjoy herself.

New eating places were always interesting to Judith. Her attention was captured by a pretty waitress who looked so very much like Hollywood celebrity she might have been the star's twin sister.

"It's the wavy line of her hair about her face," Judith told herself. The waitress' dark locks were parted at the center drawn back, then allowed to fall straight at the sides so that her face seemed very slim and her dark eyes were given unusual emphasis.

There were other pretty waitresses about. They wore pale blue frocks with trailing organdie aprons tied in floppy bows and tiny bits of organdie pinned on their heads for caps.

"WELL, hel-LO! Mrs. Knight!" The booming, masculine voice startled her.

"Why Andy Craig! What is the world bringing you here?"

"Tony!"

"Why, yes, Mrs. Knight. Any objections? You seem rather surprised."

"But—you mean you're meeting Tony here for lunch today?"

"Yes. If she's anywhere within an hour of being punctual—which of course she may not be."

"But I'm meeting Tony here myself!"

"Well then it looks as though we're to have a party, doesn't it? Mind if I take a seat?"

Judith shook her head in perplexity.

"No, of course not," she said. "Sit down—only we're going to need another place here, aren't we?"

Andy stretched out one long arm drew another chair toward the table and sat down in it.

That was a little better. Judith somehow felt most uncomfortable sitting opposite Andy Craig in the tete-a-tete atmosphere of "The Rookery." She glanced at her wrist watch.

"Tony's late," she announced. "It's five minutes after one."

Craig leaned back and smiled tolerantly. "Oh, when you know Tony Knight as long as I have you won't even start counting against her until at least 30 minutes have gone by. She's a brilliant young woman but she never yet has managed to get wit enough together to learn how to tell time."

Judith tried to appear affable. She was beginning to feel certain that Tony Knight's invitation to luncheon was not the simple friendly gesture it had seemed.

"How about the pup?" Craig was asking. "Got him yet?"

Judith shook her head.

"No," she said. "Arthur didn't feel well yesterday. I don't think he took time to see about the dog."

"Sorry to hear Mr. Knight wasn't well."

"Oh, he's all right again today. It was just a disagreeable headache."

Daily Health Talk

THE FIRST FIVE YEARS

By Julius Levy, M. D.

Director, Bureau of Child Hygiene, Department of Health, Newark, N. J. (This series of articles is prepared under the direction of the Gorgas Memorial Institute, which is organized to perpetuate the life work of the late Major-General Gorgas in preventing unnecessary illness. The headquarters of the Institute are at 1331 G Street, N. W., Washington D. C.)

Physical examination of school children has shown that throughout the United States a large percentage have deformities and defects that interfere with their mental, moral and physical development. About 3 per cent have defects of hearing; 5 per cent nasal and throat obstructions to normal breathing; 5 per cent diseased tonsils; 10 per cent are in need of glasses; about 70 per cent have defective teeth; a large number suffer from malnutrition and poor posture.

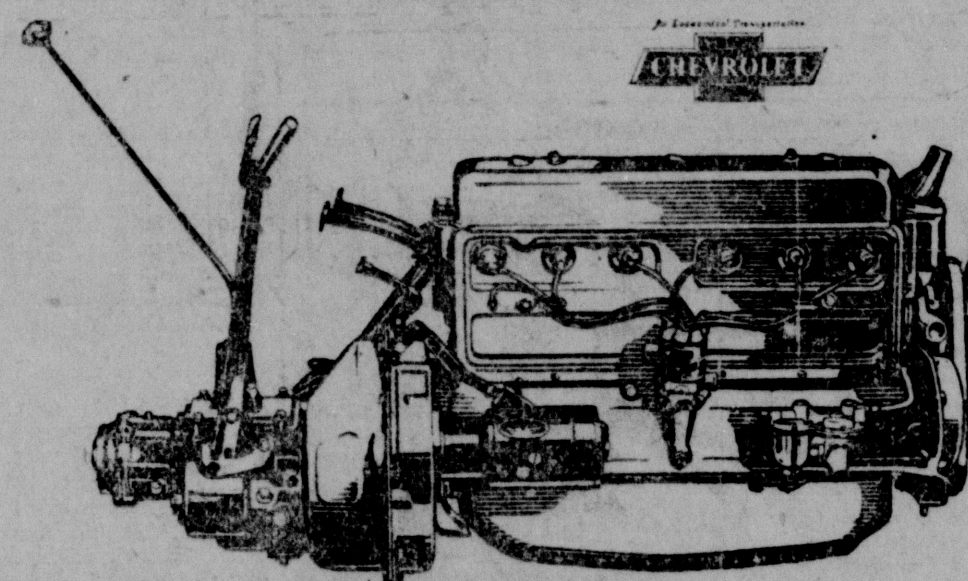

Most of these conditions can be discovered from about the third year on. It is obvious that if they are permitted to continue until the eighth year, for five years at least the child has been deprived of the best opportunity for healthy development. Furthermore, there are often permanent disabilities as the result of some of these defects. That is, fly if an enlarged tonsil or defect of hearing, or a diseased heart, is not recognized until the age of ten, very much lessened benefit comes to the child as a result of the information.

50 horsepower six-cylinder engine

Not until you drive the new Chevrolet Six can you appreciate what a wonderful improvement has been made in its famous six-cylinder valve-in-head engine. With its capacity increased to 50 horsepower, it has great reserve energy for sweeping up the steepest hills—for swift acceleration—and for sustained high speeds. Its power flows evenly and smoothly. And it is extremely flexible in traffic. In fact—it does everything you could possibly want a motor to do. Yet it is remarkably economical in its use of gasoline and oil. Come in today for a demonstration.

and six should be examined twice a year, even though they appear to be well. A careful physician will often discover many conditions that can be checked or entirely remedied through proper care in this period. A proper regulation of their diet; proper emphasis on rest, fresh air and sunlight; and protection against contagious diseases, such as diphtheria, scarlet fever and smallpox will prevent disease and its complications and establish those health habits that are so essential to normal growth and development.

The pre-school period is really the most important period of a child's life. 25 per cent of all deaths occur in children under five years of age and 85 per cent of all cases of illness from contagious diseases occur in this pre-school period. That is why mothers should take full advantage of the opportunity to protect children from the more serious children's diseases, such as diphtheria, and postpone as long as possible the contracting of any disease. It is important to emphasize this fact particularly in relation to measles. This is ordinarily considered a mild disease of childhood and yet, together with whooping cough, it is one of the most serious maladies in infants under the age of one.

If an infant is carefully watched during the first year, and the mother carefully follows the instructions given by a competent physician who is interested in keeping the well baby well, there will be very little need for malnutrition classes or any special classes for school children. The child will come to school with vigor of body and mind, and with freedom from defects and deformities.
